The Ralph Davis Award is presented annually to a Boy Scout, in the North Star District, to commemorate the dedication of Ralph Charles Davis. Ralph Davis was a long time member of the commissioner's staff and his Scout Spirit showed in all he did.

Ralph's commitment was not limited to Scouting alone, service to his church and community were also high priorities in his life. Ralph lived his life with a great commitment to Scouting, church and community just as boys in Scouting are doing today.

It is up to the Scoutmasters, and other Scouters, of the North Star District to nominate boys for this award.

Look at the boys you know in the North Star District, boys who share the same commitment as Ralph Davis. Get their applications in early, remember the boy you submit may be this year's recipient.

All Scouts nominated for this award must be under the age of 18 on nomination deadline to qualify.
